Collect

O God, who on this day hast through thine only-begotten Son overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life: we beseech thee; that as by thy preventing grace thou dost breathe into our minds these our desires, so by thy continual help thou wouldest bring the same to good effect. Through the same.

Epistle

I Corinthians 5:7-8

BRETHREN: Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Gradual

This is the day which the Lord hath made, we will be joyful and glad in it. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Alleluia, Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

Sequence – Victimae Paschali

Plainsong

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth; Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: the Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal. Speak, Mary, declaring, what thou sawest wayfaring: The tomb of Christ who is living: the glory of Jesu's resurrection. Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you. Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining: have mercy, Victor King, ever reigning. Amen. Alleluia.

Mark 16:1-7

AT THAT TIME: When the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

MARIA CONSOLATA

This brief interlude at the end of High Mass on Easter Day (sometimes a night service of its own) includes the Regina Coeli sung, as the Sacred Ministers cense all the Shrines or altars of Our Lady in a church, recalling her consolation and bliss on seeing her Son risen from the dead. During the Mascagni Regina Coeli, the Easter Garden and the Shrines of Our Lady will be censed.

NOTES

As is our custom, the Easter Garden is the focus of our Eastertide devotions. This is a very common feature of Anglican Churches throughout the world, and fulfils much the same function as the Christmas nativity scene. It is highly suitable to say a prayer there after Mass. Obviously, you may pray in thanksgiving for the Resurrection, for the dead, and indeed for our parish church, dedicated under this mystery, and for your own concerns.

Refrain

- 3 Months in due succession, days of length'ning light,
Hours and passing moments praise thee in their flight.
Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to thee.
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.
- 4 Maker and Redeemer, life and health of all,
Thou from heav'n beholding human nature's fall,
Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.
- 5 Thou, of life the author, death didst undergo,
Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
Come then, true and faithful, now fulfil thy word,
'Tis thine own third morning! rise, O buried Lord!
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.
- 6 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain;
All that now is fallen raise to life again;
Show thy face in brightness, bid the nations see;
Bring again our daylight: day returns with thee!
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say. Amen.

4 Christ is risen, we are risen!
 Shed upon us heav'nly grace,
 Rain and dew and gleams of glory
 From the brightness of thy face;
 That, with hearts in heaven dwelling,
 We on earth may fruitful be,
 And by angel hands be gathered,
 And be ever, Lord, with thee.

5 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Glory be to God on high;
 Alleluia to the Saviour
 Who has won the victory;
 Alleluia to the Spirit,
 Fount of love and sanctity;
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 To the Triune Majesty. Amen.
